Palm Beach Jr. College Becomes Mobile;
Night Classes Begin Here February 20

On Friday, February 17th from two to, five in the after- noon and from 6 to 8:30 at night you may register at Belle Glade High School for evening classes in Palm Beach Junior College leading to recognized college credits.

This step, long a planned ambition of Pellon Morris, has resulted from a study of Glades students — some 40, as of the present time—both current and anticipated. The result of these three night classes may be had at home in the High School facilities, with laboratory work still required in West Palm Beach.

It is anticipated that some 200 students may be enrolled within a year's time.

No high school work may be taken except by adults whose results are judged by them- selves.

Dr. Paul W. Graham, Registrar, announced to Rotarians Fri- day that outstanding teachers have been assigned to come to Belle Glade for the teaching, as they wish to participate in this extension of the services of the school.

"Retreat Or Responsibility" Topic Featured At W. M. U. Circle Meet

"Retreat Or Responsibility," with scripture reading from Daniel 1:1-2, furnished the topic for the Women's Missionary Circle of the First Baptist Church this month. Tributes were paid to the Hebrew youth, Daniel, for refusing to drink wine, risking his very life to stand for what he knew to be right. The fact that his unique courage would influence us today, was unthought of at that time.

During the business meeting session of each circle, announcements were made that the Community Mission project for the month was to pray for the revival of each church, and place magazines and pamphlets in various offices and waiting rooms in the city as well as the hospital and motels. A prayer service was held for the revival after the meeting.

Mrs. Jane Little presided at the meeting of the Gladys Smith Circle at the home of Mrs. F. C. Markham. Taking part in the program were Mrs. Junius Harris, Mrs. Clyde Parrish, Mrs. Leo Dunlevit and Mrs. Little. Others attending were Mrs. Little.

Episcopal Church To Hear Fr. Cox At Lenten Service

An extra mid-week service has been added to the regular hour of services at the Episcopal Church of St. John the Apostle. On Wednesday evenings during Lent there will be a special service of Evening Prayer followed by a sermon, beginning at eight o'clock. At most of these Wednesday evening services the sermon will be preached by guest priests from some of the nearby Episcopal churches.

Next Wednesday evening, Feb. 22, St. John's will have as its guest preacher the Reverend Lloyd A. Cox, Vicar of St. Martin's Church in Cleveland, and in charge of work with Anglican migrants in the Diocese of South Florida. Father Cox came to this from the staff of the Cathedral of St. Luke in Orlando. On November 1, 1960, he succeeded the Reverend John C. Petrie as Vicar of St. Martin's Church, Cleveland, continuing his other work as missionary to the Anglican migrant workers.

Father Cox's sermon will follow Evening Prayer on Wednesday, February 22, beginning at eight o'clock.

Heart Associations Holds Classes In "Diets"

Enrollment for the Free Controlled Diet Course being offered by the Heart Association of Palm Beach County as a community service are filling up the classes, but there is time to call WY 6-3637 and join the classes.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays, March 7, 9, 14 and 16th, 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon at the Pahokee High School, Mrs. Kay Latham, Home Economist of the Florida Power and Light Company, will prepare foods that Miss Mary Ann Marshbourne, County Health Department Dietitian, will discuss. Class members will have an opportunity to taste the foods.

On the same days in the afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 at the Lake Shore High School, Belle Glade, Mrs. Latham and Miss Marshbourne will conduct the same course.

These free courses are open to all interested in better health habits. The first two classes will deal with Controlled Calorie, the third class will be on Controlled Fats, and the last class will discuss Low Sodium and Blood Diet.

"I wish to urge heart patients, their families, those on special diets and those interested in preparing foods of controlled calories, making calories to join these classes," stated Mrs. Guy Wood, Secretary of the Glades Heart Committee.

Stork Shower Compliments Mrs. Lee

The home of Mrs. Lee Eckman was the scene of a stork shower Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 p. m. complimenting Mrs. Jean (Willie) Lee. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Wilma Crawford, Mrs. Marie King, Mrs. S. M. McAllister, Mrs. W. G. Bowen, Mrs. Cecil Kersey and Mrs. Graydon Waters.

The gift table with the traditional stork presiding was covered with a pink lace over blue cloth. Beautiful flowers were used in the living and dining rooms. Mrs. Lee was attired in a camel beige dress and wore a white orchid corsage. She opened and displayed many lovely and useful gifts including a convertible baby bed from the hostesses.

The dining table attractively laid with a beautiful lace cloth, silver pink, was centered with a silver pitcher containing pink and blue flowers. "Epidemic!" by Frank Slaughter; Epidemic is a story of imminent panic. - Date 1965, no one knew that on that date, Death, in the form of a ghastly exodus of flea-ridden rats from a tramp steamer in from the Camerons, had moved silently into the streets of New York. Epidemic, a word of fear? This is Frank Slaughter's most exciting novel. A tale of Hitchcock-like suspense about an ancient monstrosity us destroyer that could and in Epidemic strike again.

"Wedding Train" — Margaret Scherf, Merifield, Montana in 1902 was a brassy robust small town, occupied with its own affairs — Local gossip, church politics and the growth of the railroad. But, it was more than ready to take an interest in pretty, red-headed Nelle Thomsen, who she arrived at marriage, sight unseen, her cousin, Tom, that these are nostalgic days...

Mrs. Jack Kaufman and Mrs. Clara Knight and the P. T. A. members nominated Mrs. Culey Collins, Mrs. Clarence Kidder and Dr. Enmett, at Monday night's meeting to complete the required number to serve on the nominating committee.

Mrs. Murray also announced that the Mental Health Association is celebrating its 10th anniversary in Palm Beach County this month. Also there will be a Leadership Training Institute held at the University of Florida in Gainesville on June 6 thru 9 for new officers. The P. T. A. annual District Conference will be held in Ft. Pierce on March 6th. Mrs. Murray also reminded the members that the P. T. A. Founders Day is on February 17th and P. T. A. is now 62 years old.

Mrs. Frank Dooley, Study Group Chairman announced a Study Group program planned on "Parent and Youth Code of Social Conduct" to be held on Monday night Feb. 20th at 8 p. m. in Room 6 of High School Building for two hours and again on Monday night, Feb. 27th. She hopes parents will take advantage of this excellent study, particularly those with 7th and 8th grade students in their families.

Mrs. James Wierengo reported on the visit a group of Belle Glade parents made to the County School Board earlier this month. She distributed mimeographed copies of "Suggestions for Improving the Schools" at the P. T. A. meeting to inform the parents on the subjects she and other interested parents had approached the School Board with. She strongly advised all parents to obtain a copy of "Yardsticks for Public Schools" telling how our schools are measuring up to the National Standard. Mrs. Wierengo was asked if her committee was organized by the P. T. A. and she answered "No," it was just a group of interested parents trying to give the parents a viewpoint to the School Board on needed academic improvement for all students.

Coch Mayor spoke on behalf of the coaches, who he strongly stated are first hired as teachers and coach only after school. These men are devoting their life to helping growing boys and girls and the statements made in the Miami Herald last week were not true in any shape or form and he objected to the way it read penalizing the coaches because there is no language teacher in the Belle Glade High School.

Milton Carpenter, our local School Board member, stated that none of the men on the board are educators but act like a Board of Directors and it is their duty to appoint and hire teachers and administrators. He told the parents and teachers that the Board is there to serve the parents and students and is always open to any who wish to talk and suggest changes in their policies or any improvements they think must be required.

Coch Marquess said that Belle Glade High School has made a great deal of progress and school is only as good as the parents want it to be. Mr. Roy Litchfield introduced Mrs. Ronald Jones who has replaced Miss Rumbough as a 7th grade Science and Physical Education teacher. He also announced plans for Extension College courses to be taught in the Belle Glade High School Building by Palm Beach Junior College instructors. Registration will be held Friday, Feb. 17, 2 to 5 p. m. and from 8 to 2:30 p. m. at the Belle Glade High School.

The Masonic Temple, decorated with palms, two seven branched candelabras, azules and red and white gladioli was the setting for the impressive installation of the new officers of OES.

Robert J. Allen, retiring worthy patron called the meeting to Order and Mrs. Evelyn Seminole Life Insurance (Continued from Page One) into two areas with J. C. Sims, a Pahokee boy in charge of one and Jack Cookwell, a Torrey Island product, as Director of the other.

Mrs. Sims is enthusiastic when speaking of his group of representatives: "We know that the future of an associate in Seminole Life is more assured because of the modern techniques of training, and the consistent planning of administration for up-to-date contracts and service to the public."

Jack Cromartie confidentially refers to his men as "tops" with the query "What else may we expect with the training every man must take consistently, and with the youth and imagination composing the directing heads?" The substantial home-folks from the Glades who make up our directorship, make us in the field know we have the full backing of business experience, integrity and desire of service."

This Palm Beach County organization, with its roots in the heart of the Glades, it's "front" rubbing proud and stern with the business and financial leaders" is bidding wholeheartedly for a "place in the sun" with a specialty field of "doers."

The Directors are: Joe T. Boynton, Cattlemans; E. E. J. Graham, MD, Junius T. Harris, insurance; Luther Jones, Publisher and Realtor; Sam Knight, farmer; Dr. V. C. Mulberg, Dentist; Lee Burkett, Jr., Merchant; Mrs. K. T. Rockwell, Auditor; Billy Rogers, Farmer and Cattlemans; Harold L. Royals, Merchant; J. C. Sims, Division Director; Ruth Wedgworth, farmer-cattlemans and Harold B. Wilkinson, farmer. R. Bruce Jones of WFPV attorney, D. Thomas, Agency Vice President.

This youth in the field of insurance companies is rated by nationally recognized agencies as sound in the particular items of liquidity, gross surplus, trend in increase, and assets as protection to policy holders.

NEGRO NEWS

Hawks Win One

Lose One vs Lions

The girls basketball team played a fine game last night. It appeared to be one of the best games of the season. The competition was also equally distributed. It was a matter of hard hussel that won the game for the Lions, who clinched the game 60-51. The Hawks team now has a total of 11 wins and 1 defeat, which makes them 8 wins and 1 loss in the conference.

The boys game was also interesting, but wasn't up to par, as it usually is. Barbor pulled 25 rebounds for the Hawks but their shooting was rare. The Hawks won 39-33. The team now has 10 wins and one loss, and in conference play 8 wins and 1 loss.

Negro Child Injured

In Unavoidable Accident

Damon Allen, three years of age ran in front of a car on Avenue "E" Sunday afternoon and was seriously injured, in what police report as a "unavoidable accident." Several witnesses reported that the child darted in front of the vehicle which was being driven well within legal limits, so that the driver could not avoid him. It is reported that the child suffered seven broken ribs and injuries to the head, but is mending as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Marital Conduct

Disturbs Husband

Veria Niles, so displeased her reportedly common law husband that he "robbed" her with a butcher knife, according to her report. Doctors tended Veria and police attempted to find Bennie, the alleged assailant. Bennie's story, however, doesn't agree with Veria's. The police, however, recommended that Bennie be charged with assault.
